NB Residents Take Pride in Cleaning Roads

The annual New Baltimore Town-wide Clean-up began in mid-April and continued through May 14, 2007. Over 117 orange bags were signed out at the County Route 51 Town Hall by approximately 22 households in the Town.

We are so proud of the effort shown by our own residents who enjoyed a day outside with friends and family as they cleaned the roads of our town. Orange bags were left on the side of the road and the New Baltimore Highway Crew picked up the tied bags.

Volunteers we would like to acknowledge include the following individuals and their families: John Cannon, John Cashin, Priscilla Coates, Jim Coe, Pat & Alina Conway, Carol Dollerd, Matt Elia, Lynn Irwin, Bernie Jones, Mariah Kennedy, Vincent Leombruno, Barbara Layman, Sue McCuen, Arlene McKeon, Carol, Peter, Jenna and Mel Melewski, Chris Montelone, Amy Pausley, Stephen Richard, Edna Rominger, Alta Turner, Jake VanEtten, KC, Eileen and Livy Vosburgh, and Marilyn Woodhull. We apologize if a name was omitted in error.

Enjoy their good work as you drive around town, and please don't litter.
Thank-you to everyone, this year and in the past.
